Interferry Golf Tournament 'The Carus Cup' London Edition

The cup is played at the Royal Blackheath Golf Club, a friendly private members club with a proud history stretching back over 400 years. The course is a challenging par 71, with particularly strong opening and closing holes. Excellent fairways, true and fast greens together with well positioned bunkers guarantee an enjoyable test for golfers of all abilities.

The classic, natural 18 hole parkland course boasts excellent fairways, subtle and true greens together with strategic bunkering that enhances the original James Braid design. It is a true challenge for the experienced and social golfer alike and the magnificent 17th century clubhouse – with stunning views across the course – is the perfect place to relax after a game.

Situated in a tranquil corner of South East London, Royal Blackheath is just 9 miles from the City of London and is situated near historic Greenwich – home of the National Maritime Museum, Royal Observatory and the Cutty Sark.
