INTERNATIONAL CRUISE
summit
2019

27th & 28th November

Present and future
of the cruise industry

Carus Cruise has participated once again in the International Cruise Summit 2019 in Madrid, on November 27 and 28.

This edition was attended by over 400 delegates representing public administrations, destinations, associations of the industry, ports, cruise companies, tourism services, tourism professionals, shipping agents, tour operators, travel agents and suppliers.

Nevertheless our cruise business continues to face “new” and “old” challenges such as regulatory, safety and security, port and destination development and others. On the other hand, the profession is going through rapid changes in terms of passenger demographic, new ways and channels of marketing and sales, new deployment opportunities, new ships to come, and a huge supply channel.

Jose Rodriguez, from Carus with Luca Pronzati -Chief Business Innovation Officer of MSC Cruises, during the International Cruise Summit 2019

SESSION 1: INDUSTRY TRANSFORMATION

Today, the global cruise industry continues to be successful through the expansion of source markets and a highly buoyant new-building programme driving increased innovation across all sectors. However, challenges exist on the environmental and political landscape, not to mention the changes in distribution following the demise of Thomas Cook. What are the latest successes and how do we sustain smooth sailing into the future?

Achille Staiano, Vice President Global Sales MSC CRUISES
Tony Roberts, Vice President UK & Europe PRINCESS CRUISES
Chris Hackney, Managing Director MARELLA CRUISES
Kevin Bubolz, Managing Director NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE
Massimo Brancaleoni, Vice President Sales COSTA CRUISES
Richard J. Vogel, CEO & President PULLMANTUR CRUISES
Moderator: Olga Piqueras, Managing Director INTERCRUISES

This is the only forum of global knowledge about the worldwide cruise industry to be held in Europe on an annual basis.

This conference brings new perspectives and new ways to approach and analyse the industry while socialising and enjoying a professional but comfortable networking environment.

Over the years the International Cruise Summit has become the key event to tackle all these matters in detail, share worldwide global knowledge and discuss the present and future of the industry.

Since its inception in 2011 the event has been growing into one of the most recognized in the industry for addressing vital topics and at the same time evaluating solutions to common challenges affecting our industry.
